OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 3 November 1970

1. (Internal Use Only - JMM) Talked to Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff, Senate Armed Services Committee, who said Senator Stennis had definitely gotten the message of the Director's call the week before last, but Braswell will remind Stennis when he is in touch with him in the next day or two that the Director still hopes to have a word with him, at least by phone, in the near future.

2. (Internal Use Only - JMM) Called Ed Braswell of Senate Armed Services Committee, Frank Slatinshek of House Armed Services Committee, and Ralph Preston of House Appropriations Committee, to set up a meeting at Headquarters tomorrow to discuss our problems in Southeast Asia in view of the Fulbright Amendment. Slatinshek is unavailable but the others, together with Bill Woodruff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, will meet with us at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

3. (Internal Use Only - JMM) Richard G. Capen, Jr., Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs, and General James F. Lawrence, his deputy, visited Headquarters for lunch with Messrs Houston, [REDACTED] and me. During our conversation Capen was interested in when the Director had seen or would see Senator Russell, remarking that Secretary Laird wanted to see the Senator as soon thereafter as possible.

4. (Unclassified - GLC) Miss Judy Hoffman, on the staff of Senator Gaylord A. Nelson (D., Wis.), called to say that Mr. [REDACTED] had called their office referring to several Newsweek articles about CIA soldiers of fortune and said he wanted to contact the Agency about a job with us. I told Miss Hoffman that [REDACTED] should be disabused of the "soldiers of fortune" notion and merely suggested that they tell him that if he is interested in regular employment with CIA, he write to our Director of Personnel.
